INSTRUCTION

The Open Water Course is a combined program of classroom instruction and in-water scuba diving. Participants are given the knowledge and skills necessary to become comfortable and have fun underwater. Following the course, candidates will have the opportunity to attend an Open Water Training experience (additional trip fee) and receive the PADI Open Water Diver certification, the first level of scuba training. Once certified, you will be able to enjoy such dives as the reefs of Florida and the Caribbean or the quarries and lakes near home. This is an entry-level course designed by PADI and implemented by the Water World instruction staff, with more than thirty years of scuba training experience.

TUITION

$169 ... Includes instruction, pool fees, administration costs, and all scuba equipment for pool sessions (except mask, fins, snorkel, and boots). Sign up at Water World with a $100 deposit. Balance due at Intro Session. Anyone is welcome at the Intro Session if space is available.
